1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1. Definitions

In this Constitution, and any Bylaws hereunder unless the context otherwise requires:

- “APGF” means Asia-Pacific Greens Federation, a company limited by guarantee
- “Corporations Act” refers to The Corporations Act 2001 which is an act of the Commonwealth of Australia that sets out the laws dealing with business entities in Australia at federal and interstate level
- “Consensus” means the form of decision-making whereby a defined quorum is present at the meeting and there are no recorded objections to a proposed decision being achieved
- “Constituent Group” is a group admitted to the APGF in accordance with clause 7
- “Council” to be read as the Board of Directors insofar as this body may be referred to in the Corporations Act
- “Councillor” to be read as a Director as defined in the Corporations Act
- “Facilitator” is responsible for conducting the meeting, ruling on whether consensus is reached or not, counting the quorum, recording which members are present and who can vote
- “Global Greens” is the partnership of the world’s Green parties and Green political movements, working cooperatively to implement the Global Greens Charter
- “Global Greens Charter” means the Charter, adopted at the Global Greens Congress in Canberra 2001, as amended or replaced by the Global Greens Congress
- “Green” identifies the political values described in the Global Greens Charter
- “Member” is a natural person appointed by the Green Party or Parties of a country in accordance with clause 6
- “Office Bearer” refers to the APGF Convenor and Treasurer
- “Political movement” a group of people working together to achieve a political goal.
- “Year” shall mean a financial year except in relation to the period of tenure of any office bearer in which case it shall mean the period between one General Meeting and the next succeeding General Meeting

1.2. Interpretation: meaning of certain words

In this Constitution, unless the context otherwise requires:

- a. words importing the singular number include the plural number and vice versa;
- b. words importing the masculine gender include the feminine gender and vice versa;
- c. expressions referring to writing shall be construed as including references to printing, lithography, photography, email, facsimile, electronic communication and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form;
- d. all headings contained in this Constitution are for guidance and do not form part of the substance of the Constitution.
- e. The boundaries of the Asia Pacific Region shall be defined by the Council

1.3. Interpretation: Application of the Corporations Act

Except so far as the contrary intention appears in this Constitution, an expression has, in a provision of this Constitution that deals with a matter dealt with by a particular provision of the Corporations Act, the same meaning as in that provision of the Corporations Act.

2. EXCLUSION OF REPLACEABLE RULES

Subject to Part 2B.4 of the Corporations Act, the replaceable rules shall not apply to APGF.

3. PURPOSES

3.1. APGF

APGF:

- a. is a company limited by guarantee¹
- b. will operate for the promotion, development and attainment of its objects
- c. will apply its profits (if any) or other income in promoting its objects; and
- d. is not carried on for the purpose of profit or gain to its individual members

3.2. Objects

- a. The basic object of APGF is to promote and defend the principles contained in the Global Greens Charter and their official bodies with special regard to the Asia Pacific region; and to act as a recognised Federation of the Global Greens.
- b. To further its basic object, the APGF may:
 - i. build the capacity of Green parties to win elections, develop Green policies, and to operate according to Green values;
 - ii. assist emerging Green parties;
 - iii. hold meetings and events including the APGF Congress;
 - iv. work in close cooperation with the Global Greens and its member organizations, participate in the governance of the Global Greens and support and participate in the Global Greens Congress;
 - v. facilitate global communication, joint action, networking, mutual support, policy development, research and campaigning;
 - vi. facilitate learning and information dissemination about the Greens and Green issues;
 - vii. do such other things as the Council considers necessary or desirable to further the objects set out in clause 3.2(a).

¹ The regulator for companies limited by guarantee is the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC). A company limited by guarantee is a public company which is formed for purposes beneficial to the community and which prohibits payment of dividends to its members. "Limited by guarantee" means that if the company is wound up, and it is in debt, the liability of members is guaranteed to be a nominal amount. Directors of a company limited by guarantee will be subject to all of the duties and obligations for a commercial company set out in the Corporations Act 2001. A company limited by guarantee has the following key features:

- it can trade or operate throughout Australia;
- the liability of members is limited;
- there is a cost involved in establishing the company; and
- there are ongoing reporting and administrative requirements.

3.3. Powers

The APGF may, in any manner permitted by the Corporations Act exercise any power, take any action and engage in any conduct or procedure, which under the Corporations Act a company limited by guarantee may exercise, take or engage in.

4. INCOME AND PROPERTY

The income and property of the APGF shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the APGF. APGF shall not declare or pay any dividend or otherwise divide, give or transfer any of its property or income to Members.

- a. This section does not prevent the payment of fees or remuneration to any employees of, or consultants to the APGF, or to any Member or Councillor for services rendered to the APGF, payment of interest for money borrowed, rent for leased premises or goods supplied to it provided that a Member or Councillor shall not be paid any fees for his/ her ordinary services as a Member or Councillor.
- b. Nothing in this section prevents the APGF from making advances to or reimbursing Members or Councillors for expenses properly incurred by them in connection with the affairs of the APGF, including but not limited to a Member or Councillor's travel and out-of-pocket expenses in connection with attendance at meetings of Councillors, Committees or Members of the APGF or in respect of special services performed for or at the request of the APGF not being the ordinary services of a Member or Councillor.
- c. Any payments to a Councillor or Member shall be approved by the Council.

5. ORGANISATION CONTROL AND POLICY

- a. The management and control of the APGF shall be vested in a Council as hereinafter provided.
- b. The Council may, subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the decisions of any General Meeting, exercise every power of the APGF.

6. MEMBERSHIP

6.1. Members²

- a. Membership of the APGF is appointed by the Green Parties in each country
- b. Each country is entitled to an equal number of Members

6.2. Appointment of Members

- a. Each Member is appointed in writing by the APGF Full Member party - or where there is more than one Full Member party, the Full Member parties - of a country, and upon such ² The Australian Corporations Act requires each Member to have an equal vote in the General Meetings. That is why APGF Members are a person representing the Green Parties in each country. The Member representative and the Councillor may be the same person or a different person. The term "Member" is required by the Corporations Act.

appointment, that person becomes the Full Member or Members' representative at General Meetings of the APGF

- b. A Member's appointment is of no effect until approved by the APGF Council

- b. No Constituent Group shall be allowed to be relieved of the payment of the annual fee except as otherwise specified in the Constitution or Bylaws
- c. A notice of the annual fee due (if any) and of any previous fee overdue by the Constituent Group shall be given to the Constituent Group annually
- d. A Constituent Group shall be liable for the annual fee notwithstanding any failure to give a notice or a true notice
- e. Annual fees shall be paid by the dates set out in the schedule of fees as determined by the Council for each Constituent Group.
- f. Annual fees are not payments in advance and shall not by reason of resignation, termination or for any other reason be returned to the Constituent Group.
- g. Any Constituent Group who has any fee overdue or levy payable past the period stated in the Bylaws shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights and privileges of an APGF Constituent Group
- h. Any Constituent Group who has any fee overdue or levy payable for a period stated in the Bylaws automatically ceases to be a Constituent Group of APGF unless otherwise determined by the Members in General Meeting

7.5. Termination

A Constituent Group:

- a. may resign from the APGF by written notice given to the Convenor
- b. shall cease to be a Constituent Group of the APGF if its annual fee remains unpaid past 31 December
- c. may be terminated by decision of the Council if it has brought the APGF into disrepute or has acted contrary to the interests of the APGF
- d. has a right of appeal against termination to a General Meeting

7.6. Rejection of Applications

- a. An applicant who is refused admission by the APGF, may by notice in writing to the Convenor, appeal to a General Meeting for the purpose of determining that application for membership
- b. The Councillors shall convene such a General Meeting within three months or such later period as may be prescribed by the Corporations Act following the date of receipt by the Convenor of notice of intention to appeal

7.7. Limited Liability of Members and Constituent Groups

The liability of the Members and Constituent Groups is limited.

7.8. Contribution by Members and Constituent Groups

- a. Every Member and Constituent Group of the APGF undertakes to contribute to the property of the APGF
- b. In the event of the APGF being wound up, payment of the debts and liabilities of the APGF, including the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up and for the adjustments of the rights of the contributories among themselves, shall not exceed $2

8. CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP AND CONSTITUENT GROUPS

8.1. Constitution Bound

Each Member and Constituent Group shall be bound by this Constitution.

8.2. Suspension

If a Member or Constituent Group ceases to fulfil eligibility requirements, the Council may suspend participation in the APGF until the Council determines that the body once again satisfies the eligibility requirements.

8.3. Bankruptcy

Any Constituent Group who becomes bankrupt, insolvent or executes an assignment of property for the benefit of creditors and any Constituent Group being a corporation which goes into voluntary administration, compulsory or voluntary liquidation, other than for the purpose of reconstruction shall, by virtue of that bankruptcy, insolvency, execution of assignment, administration, or liquidation cease to be a Constituent Group of the APGF unless it can satisfy the Council that no discreditable conduct by the Constituent Group has occurred.

8.4. Complaints

- a. Any complaint that a Constituent Group or a Member has been convicted of a criminal offence and/or has acted or behaved in a manner prejudicial to the APGF (including in its role as a Global Greens Federation) or in breach of the objects, purposes and standards of the APGF shall be referred to the Convenors who shall immediately refer the complaint to the Council
- b. The Council will convene a Conciliation Panel to assist in settling disputes. This Panel's operations are set out in the Bylaws
- c. The Council has the responsibility to investigate complaints
- d. The Council can suspend the Constituent Group in particular circumstances whilst an investigation is carried out, but also subject to a right of appeal to the General Meeting

9. GENERAL MEETINGS

9.1. Purpose of General Meetings

- a. The purpose of General Meetings is to enable Members to consider and discuss the operations of the APGF, to make decisions as they affect the direction of the APGF, and to consider other matters as required of General Meetings by this Constitution and the Corporations Act.

- b. The business of the General Meeting shall be to receive the audited accounts, conduct elections as necessary, approve the budget and any other business as notified. If the auditor or the Treasurer are present, the facilitator must allow a reasonable opportunity for the Members to ask the auditor or the Treasurer questions relevant to the audit.

9.2. Timing of and Notice of General Meetings

- a. A General Meeting of the APGF is to be held at least once each year, with one meeting to be held within 5 months of the end of the financial year
- b. Members can participate in a General Meeting in person, by telephone, electronic or other internet based form of audio or visual communication
- c. General Meetings may formally be spread over a period of time to allow for decisions to be taken and recorded online
- d. Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act relating to agreements for shorter notice, a minimum of 14 days' notice (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, and exclusive of the day for which notice is given) shall be given to Members

9.3. Contents of Notice

A notice of a General Meeting must be drafted in a manner that permits all Members and Constituent Groups to clearly understand the issues to be considered at the meeting and must:

- a. set out the place, date, time and manner of the meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held other than in person, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
- b. subject to the Corporations Act, state the general nature of the business of the meeting;
- c. if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting, set out the intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution;
- d. contain a statement that a Member has a right to appoint a proxy as specified in clause 10.6; and
- e. set out or include any additional information or documents specified by the Corporations Act.

9.4. Failure to Receive Notice

The accidental non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution or proceedings of any meeting.

9.5 Notices

A Notice can be sent by email to the address notified by the Constituent Group for that purpose.

10. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1. Quorum

No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members participate. Two-thirds of total Members of APGF eligible to vote at the meeting and participating as in 9.2(b) shall constitute a quorum.

10.2. If Quorum Absent

If the meeting is convened upon the requisition of Members and a quorum is absent, the meeting shall be dissolved. In any other case the meeting shall stand adjourned to such other time and place as the facilitator of the meeting may determine.

10.3. Facilitator

A Facilitator shall be appointed for every General Meeting of the APGF. The Facilitator of a General Meeting must allow a reasonable opportunity for Members at the meeting to ask questions about or make comments on the management of the APGF.

10.4. Adjournment of Meeting

- a. The Facilitator can adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place
- b. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting

10.5. Determination of Votes

- a. Subject to this Constitution, all questions arising at any meeting of Members shall be decided primarily by consensus
- b. If a serious attempt to reach consensus fails, a question shall only be put to a vote with the agreement of a two-thirds majority of Members at the meeting
- c. Questions put to a vote shall be decided by a majority of two-thirds of the votes cast by Members and for all purposes be deemed a determination of the APGF

24.5. Distribution of property

If, upon the winding-up or dissolution of the APGF, there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the APGF, but shall be given or transferred to some other corporation or body which has objects similar to the objects of the APGF which prohibits the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the APGF under or by virtue of clause 4 of this Constitution. Such corporation or body shall be determined by the Members of the APGF at or before the time of dissolution, and in default thereof by application to the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory for determination.

25. ALTERATIONS TO CONSTITUTION

This Constitution may be altered, rescinded or repealed by special resolution of a General Meeting of the APGF.

26. DECISIONS ON THE MEANING OF CONSTITUTION

If any doubt arises as to the proper meaning of these provisions the decision of the Council shall be final and conclusive and its decision shall be recorded in the Minutes of the proceedings of the Council unless and until a further decision by Members in General Meeting.

27. BYLAWS

- a. The Council may make Bylaws as they may deem appropriate for the proper conduct, control and management of the APGF
- b. The Members in General Meeting may amend the Bylaws
